

The graph illustrates the progression of COVID-19 cases in Córrego Fundo, Minas Gerais, over a two-year period. The logarithmic y-axis highlights the exponential growth during the second wave, which peaks near 100 cases in early 2022. The moving average line provides a smoothed view of the data, showing the overall trend and the timing of the waves.